

Dear Students,

Need Help?

Want to Talk?

Not Sure????????

The sudden passing of ECC/EOF student Deibi Nepomuceno has brought up a lot of feeling for students and staff.

It is normal to have sad memories, old fears, even feelings of anger when a tragedy happens. These feelings can even occur with a loss of someone you might not have even known. So, don't hesitate to take advantage of the special counseling service that ECC has arranged to help you.

Just let us know – visit or call your EOF counselor or Ms. Beretta x3405 or Ms. Romano x3231

Remember: EOF – Use Us!!!
