

EOF Matters
At ECC
April, 2008 Edition
J. Romano, editor

Here is what you should be doing – NOW:

OK, you have a busy schedule, job, family, kids even – that’s why you need to: Register Now!!! Go on line or come to see us – either way lock in the best classes for the summer and the Fall right away!!!

ALSO.....Students – get you financial aid in place for the new academic year!!! Just go online to the FAFSA.gov. and update your info. Any questions or hesitation, come on into EOF and we will work with you on it!

Take Note:

Last Day of Classes	Full Term	April 21
‘ “ “ “	Late Start	April 19
“ “ “ “	Weekend College	April 21

Summer I – first day of classes - April 30th

Interested in Summer classes – you should be! It’s a great way to move ahead with your education – make-up for lost time, or just jump ahead!!! You may be able to get tuition help – It’s 1, 2, 3 and follow-ups of course;

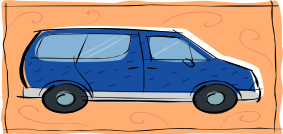

1. Register for courses
2. Check with Financial Aid to see if they have funds for you
3. See your EOF Counselor ASAP!!! – If financial aid can’t cover the costs, we may!

Serve Your County – Learn by doing

Our former student, Mr. Jenkins, has recently informed us of an exciting opportunity: There is currently a call for residents from Irvington and Newark to consider taking on a deeper role in the working of the county. - Become an Essex County Committee Member (District Leader). You could get the opportunity to run for office, meet many leaders, and see how the local political system works – from the inside! Interested people (Republican or Democratic) can discuss this venture more by emailing jenkins_isaac@yahoo.com)

College Tour – In Real life: Take a Tour – with your EOF Counselor!!!!!!!!!!

In April the EOF Forums go on the road – come along and get EOF attendance credit and a lot more – meet EOF staff and students in such 4-year colleges as – Kean University, Montclair State University, Seton Hall University, Bloomfield College. Those who plan to go to New Jersey City University, on April 16, 9am, for their special event & tour, contact, Mrs. Beretta ASAP!!!

Congratulations to the Mighty EOF Club and Alliance!!!!

The Egg Hunt they sponsored for the ECC Child Development Center was a great success!!! They actually hand filled over 300 plastic eggs and the kiddies loved the sweets!!! What will they be doing next? Join up and be a part of it – See Isaac, Shonda, Melissa in the EOF Department.

Do you know this lovely couple?? – ECC grads! Mr. and Mrs. Norvil have lots to celebrate this Spring – both are graduating from college! Mr. Norvil from ECC, and Ms. Norvil, ECC alum will be graduating from RU with a BA!!!

Graduates!!!: Remember the 3 things you should be doing now:

1. See your Counselor
2. See your Counselor
3. See your Counselor

We can assist and guide you though this important time in life – transferring, job search, Graduation audit, and celebrations too:

PartyTime!!!

EOF Graduation Dinner and Ceremony – May 16, 2008, 6pm, The Essex Manor, Bloomfield. Get ready to celebrate with your colleagues, friends and family. Tickets go on sale April 15, 2008 right in the EOF office!!! The event is sponsored by the EOF Department, so the graduate's ticket is free and additional guests are set at a reduced price! More reason to spread the word and plan your outfit!

Dear Students,

There have been a few changes in the EOF Department, so we what to let you know that we are still as committed as ever to help you to reach your goals!!! Ms. Torres, Ms. Beretta, Ms. Silva, Ms. Paniagua, Ms. Baskin, Ms. Calloway, Ms. DePascual and of course, Mr. Ike stand ready to assist you. This semester, we even have some of the best Work Study Students and Part time workers joining the team. Certainly, if you want to discuss something with me (good or bad!) please stop by! You all mean everything to our success!!! And you know what we always say..... (J. Romano

4/08

EOF – Get with the Program!!!!

