This year comes to an end with a celebration of the ethnic and cultural diversity of the students and staff of The Educational Opportunity Fund at Essex County College. The Multicultural Forum is an annual tradition where students shared their cultural heritage with other students via presentations such as dance, dramatic reenactment and power point presentations. The following cultures were presented, Haitian, Italian, Ecuadorian, Peruvian, Puerto Rican and Black Culture on Thursday, December 13, 2012. This event commenced with a special presentation from Dr. Gale Gibson who spoke about her cultural heritage of being raised in Barbados.
