C. ACADEMIC FREEDOM

The College herein declares its commitment to sustain the principles of academic freedom which are essential to both teaching and research, the basic functions of higher education. This means for the College teacher:

H. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Definition: For the purpose of this Article, the term “grievance” shall mean any claim by a bargaining unit member(s) or the Chapter that there has been a violation, misinterpretation or improper application of this Agreement or a violation of any rule or policy of the Administration affecting the terms and conditions of employment.

Informal Procedure: Prior to the filing of a grievance, the grievant(s) shall informally discuss the matter with the Chairperson in whose area the alleged grievance occurred.

Formal Procedure: If, as a result of the informal discussion with the appropriate Chairperson, the matter is not resolved, the grievant may invoke the formal grievance procedure by having the Chapter submit a written grievance on the members’ behalf. The written grievance shall be submitted not later than five (5) working days after the Informal Procedure outlined above, but, in any event, not later than ten (10) working days from the date the grievant should have reasonably known of its occurrence.

Step One: The grievance must be submitted in writing, stating the alleged violation and the remedy sought, to the appropriate Dean. The bargaining unit member(s) and a Chapter representative shall meet with the Dean or designee for the purpose of resolving the grievance.

The meeting must be held within ten (10) working days of the receipt of the written grievance. The Dean or designee shall submit a written answer within five (5) working days after the above mentioned meeting.

Step Two: If the grievant is not satisfied with the Step One decision, or if no response is rendered within the time limits in Step One, the grievant(s) shall have five (5) working days to file the written grievance with the Chief Academic Officer or designee and a copy shall be filed with the Chapter by the grievant.

Within ten (10) working days from the date of filing, the Chief Academic Officer or designee shall meet with the grievant, any involved administrator and a Chapter representative in an effort to resolve the grievance. The Chief Academic Officer or designee shall submit the decision in writing within five (5) working days of said meeting with a copy to the Chapter representative.

Step Three: If the Chapter is not satisfied with the Step Two decision, or if no response is rendered within the time limits in Step Two, the Chapter shall have five (5) working days to file the written grievance with the President or designee.

Within ten (10) working days from the date of filing, the President or designee shall meet with the grievant, any involved administrator and a Chapter representative in an effort to resolve the grievance. The President or designee shall submit the decision in writing within five (5) working days of said meeting with a copy to the Chapter.

Step Four: If the Chapter is not satisfied with the decision in Step Three, or if no decision has been made within the time limits as set forth in Step Three, the Chapter may submit the grievance to arbitration. This request shall be made in writing to the New Jersey Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC), with a copy to the President.

Rules and regulations of PERC pertaining to the selection of an arbitrator shall be followed. The power and authority of the impartial arbitrator shall be limited to the subject of the grievance. The arbitrator shall have no authority to alter the provisions of this Agreement. The decision of the arbitrator shall be binding on all parties.

The fees and expenses of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by the Chapter and the Board.

The grievance may be withdrawn at any level.

The number of days in each step shall be considered as maximum and every effort shall be made to expedite the process. However, the time limits stated in the procedure may only be extended by written mutual agreement.

Failure of the grievant or Chapter to adhere to the timelines prescribed in Steps One, Two, Three or Four shall constitute a withdrawal of the grievance and the grievance cannot be resubmitted.

Failure of the administration at any step to submit a written decision shall allow the grievance to proceed to the next step.

I. MEETING SPACE FOR UNION BUSINESS
